Numb. 6650.

Wednesday, February 13. 1723.

London, February 13.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Moscow; January 8.
THEIR Czarish Majesties Departure for Petersbourg is not yet fixed. A Body of Robbers, to the Number of 900, with a Reform'd Russian Colonel at their Head, has lately committed great Depredations and Cruelties, and designed to have set Fire to Petersbourg; 36 of these are taken, and among them their Chief, who have either been impaled alive, or broken upon the Wheel. Several Coiners of false Money have also been apprehended, and put to Death, by having hot melted Lead poured down their Throats.

Stockholm, Jan. 23, O. S. On Monday the 21st Instant, the Four Bodies of the States proceeded to elect each their Speaker. Baron Lagerberg, the President of the Treasury, was chosen Marshal of the Nobility by a very great Majority. Yesterday Morning the Marshal waited upon the King of Sweden, being accompanied by Forty of the Members of that House. His Majesty received them very graciously, and signified to them his entire Approbation of the Choice of the said Baron for Marshal. His Majesty likewise delivered to the Marshal a Letter to be read in their Assembly. The Purpose of that Letter was chiefly to recommend to them Concord and Unanimity, his Majesty desiring, that laying aside all Distinction of Parties, they would unite their Endeavours, on this Solemn Occasion, for the Good of their Country, and that their only Contentions might be who should approve themselves the truest Patriots; his Majesty assuring them on his Part, that he should always place himself at the Head of those Patriots. As soon as the Marshal and the Nobility were withdrawn, the Clergy, the Burghers, and the Peasants, who had chosen each their Speaker, waited severally on his Majesty, and were all received very graciously. The remaining Part of the Day was mostly spent in Matters of Ceremony between the respective Bodies; the Clergy, Burghers, and Peasants, by a Deputation of Twelve of their Members, having severally appeared before the Nobility in their Hall, and complimented them by a short Speech, which was answered by the Marshal. This being the Queen's Birth Day, the several Bodies of the States have waited on their Majesties, to compliment them on the Occasion, as have also the foreign Ministers: The Court has laid aside Morning To-Day, and at Night there will be a Ball at the Palace. His Majesty has this Day signified, that To-Morrow he will admit the whole Body of the States to an Audience, in the Great Hall at the Court.

Ratisbon, Feb. 1. The Evangelical Body were assembled extraordinarily the 30th past about Matters of Religion. On the 29th Advice was received, that the Duke of Deux Ponts, who was married 15 Years ago to a Lutheran Princess of the House of Veldenz, is lately divorced from her by the Clergy of Metz in Lorraine, under Pretence that a Marriage prohibited and forbid by the Laws and Canons of the Romish Church, is null and void: It is said that Princess designs to come hither, to represent to the Evangelical Body the Injustice done her, and implore its Protection.

Hague, Feb. 16. The States of Holland continue their Session, not having yet entirely finished the several Matters under their Deliberation. The Zealanders have signified, that they propose to send their Deputation to be here only against the usual Assembly of the States of Holland in the Month of March next: To that Time is also put off the Disposal of the Regiment of Guards, vacant by the Death of General de Vilatte. Advices from Constantinople say, that the Grand Signior has given a favourable Answer to the Proposals of the Rebel Miri Weyns, promising him Assistance to maintain him at the Head of the Persian Government till the Sophi's young Son comes to Age, on whom the Grand Signior intends, as 'tis said, to bestow one of his Daughters in Marriage. 'Tis said also, that the Porte exhorts Miri Weyns to endeavour by a mild Administration to gain the People's Affections, and re-establish Affairs in Georgia on their ancient Foot, giving him Hopes of possessing the highest Posts under the young King who he arrives at his Majority. 'Tis also added, that the Porte has insisted with Miri Weyns, that he shall not enter into any Engagements with foreign Powers without the Grand Signior's Consent.

2d Edition of,

The Works of the late Reverend and Learned WILLIAM BATES, D.D. To which is added, The Sainns Everlasting Rest, and a much more exact Table than was in the former Edition. Printed for J. Knapton, J. Wyan, J. Sprint, J. Davis, E. Bell, D. Midwinter, A. Betteworth, W. Taylor, R. Robinson, J. Brotherton, J. Osborne, S. Ballard, J. Bailey, R. Ford, E. Symon, and A. Ward.

A certain Cure for FOUNDER'D HORSES, by an excellent Chymical Secret, which immediately takes away all Pains and Anguish in their Feet, and all burning Heat, and parching Dryness, suppling and cooling them to Admiration, and causing them to become kindly moist and easy, and the Hoof to grow naturally wide, so as not to pinch them, making those Horses that before could scarce stand, or when they did, flood with all their four Feet crumpling up together, able to stand and tread out freely and boldly, without the least Pain, Uneasiness, or L. menens: Those that are but a little lost in the Feet, it presently sets up and recovers, and those exceeding bad it effectually cures in a short Time, making them as perfectly firm and found in their Feet as ever, as the Author has for many Years past experienced. It is to be had only at Mrs. Bell's, a Bookseller, at the Cross Keys and Bible in Cornhill near Stock's-Market, at 3 s. 6 d. a Glass, with Directions.

The only true and original Royal Chymical Wax-Balls for the Hands and Face, are removed from Mr. Lambert's, the Glover's, to prevent the Publick's being imposed on by Counterfeits, which are not only ineffectual, but also prove dangerous, and are now sold only at Mr. Alcroft's Toyshop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, under Bridges's Coffee-house, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and at Mrs. Gilpin's Milliner, near Heracles-Alley by the Temple. They have above these Twenty Years been largely experienced, and highly commended for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wax, Powder, Colmekick, &c. being indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Morpheus, Sun-burn, Scarf, Pimpls, Piss or Redness of the Small-pox, keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness. They soon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a more exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but to comfort the Brain and Nerves as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grains of Memory. Price 1 s. each.
